Zamani appointed Deleum group chief operating officer

Published on: Tuesday, September 04, 2012

Kuala Lumpur: Deleum Bhd, a provider of diverse range of supporting specialised products and services to the oil and gas industry, has appointed Zamani Abd Ghani, 41, as group chief operating officer.

The appointment took effect on Sept 1.

He joined Deleum Services Sdn Bhd in 1997 had held several senior positions within the group, including as vice-president of the sales, power and machinery division and chief operating officer for power and machinery division.

He was the senior general manager of business development for the group prior to his promotion to group chief operating officer.

"Encik Zamani brings with him a wealth of experience in the oil and gas industry as he is familiar with the group's operations and businesses.

"This will bear him in good stead as group chief operating officer as he will be able to deliver operational excellence for each of our business segments," said Nan Yusri Nan Rahimy, Deleum Group Managing Director in a statement Monday. - Bernama
