Deleum appoints new COO

DELEUM Bhd, a provider of diverse range of supporting specialised products and services to the oil and gas industry, has appointed Zamani Abd Ghani, as group chief operating officer (COO).

The appointment took effect on Sept 1.

Zamani, 41, joined Deleum Services Sdn Bhd in 1997, had held several senior positions within the group including vice president of the sales, power and machinery division and chief operating officer of the power and machinery division.

He was also the senior general manager of business development for the group prior to his promotion as group COO.

"Zamani brings with him a wealth of experience in the oil and gas industry as he is familiar with the group's operations and businesses," said Deleum group managing director Nan Yusri.
